

Outline

This Privacy Notification sets out:

- Why we collect and use your information
- how we collect your information
- what happens if you do not wish to provide us with information
- whether we provide your information to other organisations
- the availability of our APP Privacy Policy
- whether we disclose your information overseas and if so, where
- how you can contact us

Why we collect and use your information

We collect and use information about you to:

- assess your application for employment with us
- verify information contained in your job application form
- assess, when applicable, whether you are a fit and proper person for employment in an authorised deposit-taking institution dealing with people's money.

We do not retain your information if we decide not to employ you and we will destroy your information. If we decide to employ you, your information will be transferred to our employee records. Employee records are not subject to the Australian Privacy Principles.

How we collect your information

We collect information about you from:

- you directly
- your previous employers to check your employment history and any references your former employers have provided
- police checks provided by the relevant State Police or the Australian Federal Police, where applicable

The Banking Act and the Corporations Act authorises us, where relevant, to request and obtain police checks. We will request and obtain police checks for all successful applicants.

You will need to consent to our obtaining police checks. You do not have to but if you do not, we will not proceed with your application.

What if you do not wish to provide us with information?

If you do not give us the information we require, we will not be able to assess your job application.

Providing your information to other entities

We only disclose your information to other entities as required by law.

Our APP Privacy Policy for Job Applicants

Our APP Privacy Policy for Job Applicants is available on our website. The Policy contains information about

- how you can access your information
- how you can seek correction of your information
- how you make a complaint and how we will deal with it.

Disclosure to overseas recipients

We do not currently disclose your information to overseas recipients.
